MILITARY MATTERS.

Captain Cochran Ordered to Frankfort to Turn Over Arms.

The following order will explain itself—

OFFICE OF ADJUTANT GENERAL, FRANKFORT, KY., June 12, 1900. Special Order No. 15, C. S.

Par. I.—The Maysville Company, K. S. G., Captain Horace J. Cochran, is, pursuant to Special Order No. 15, May 30th, 1900, now mustered out of the service and the Kentucky State Guard.

Par. II.—Captain Horace J. Cochran will ship all arms, ammunition, clothing and equipment to Sergeant Henry Lillius, Keeper of Arsenal, at Frankfort, Ky., and take the receipt of the transportation company therefor.

Par. III.—Captain Cochran is authorized to come to the Capital and invoice said supplies to said Sergeant Lillius and take his receipt therefor.

Par. IV.—The travel enjoined and the necessary expense is necessary for the good of the public service and the said Captain Cochran will be allowed the usual pay of a Captain in active service and traveling expenses.

By command of J. C. W. Beckham, Governor and Commander-in-Chief. DAVID R. MURRAY, Assistant Adjutant General.

QUITE A SURPRISE.

Marriage of James H. Hall, Jr., and Miss Margaret Duke Watson.

Yesterday a telegram from Cincinnati to Mr. and Mrs. H. Duke Watson brought them the surprising news that their elder daughter, Miss Margaret Duke, had been married to Mr. James H. Hall, Jr.

Behind this is a "tinge of romance," for it was a "runaway match," again verifying the saw, "Love laughs at locksmiths."

Miss Watson started to Lexington yesterday morning ostensibly to visit friends, while Mr. Hall left last Saturday for Cincinnati, intending to go to Huntington, W. Va., to visit his sister.

Miss Watson went to Lexington, but did not stop there, continuing her journey to Cincinnati.

Mr. Hall did not go to Huntington but remained in Cincinnati.

Immediately upon the arrival of Miss Watson they procured a license and were married at 2 p. m. yesterday in the Parlor of the Grand Hotel by the Rev. W. A. Robinson, Pastor of Trinity Methodist Church.

The young couple have been sweethearts for years, and the union is but the happy ending of a courtship which THE LEDGER hopes may be the commencement of a never-ending married life.

VETERAN MEMBER.

Mr. J. M. Harding, the Oldest Odd-fellow, Dies in Aberdeen.

Mr. J. M. Harding died Monday in Aberdeen.

He was 82 years old and had been an Oddfellow nearly half a century, having joined Charter Oak Lodge February 9th, 1854.

The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock this afternoon with the honors of the Order, the Lodges of this city being invited.

We offer while it lasts Daisy Patent Flour, $3.50 per barrel.

M. C. RUSSELL & SON.

ONE FAIR GRADUATE.

Miss Edythe Perrine Wins Honors at the Misses Young's School.

The closing exercises of the Misses Young's School for Girls were held last evening at 7:30 in the home on Limestone street. Flowers were in great profusion, and the brilliant lights showed resplendent over a most fashionably dressed and highly delighted audience, and the various pupils interpreting the program showed them most proficiently taught.

There was one graduate—Miss Edythe Perrine, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Perrine of East Fourth street. A lovely girl she was, in her dainty gown of white, and as she stood to receive the finishing Degree of college life her sweet feminine graces all were in evidence.
